THE WIND IN THE WILLOWS

based on the book by Kenneth Grahame

The Wind in the Willows is a children's novel by the British novelist Kenneth Grahame, first published in 1908. It details the story of Mole, Ratty and Badger as they try to help Mr. Toad, after he becomes obsessed with motorcars and gets into trouble. It also details short stories about them that are disconnected from the main narrative. The novel was based on bedtime stories Grahame told his son Alastair.

characters

Mr. Badger

A firm but considerate animal, Badger embodies the "wise hermit" figure.

Mole

Known as "Moley" to his friends. An independent, timid, genial, thoughtful, home-loving animal.

Mr. Toad

Known as "Toady" to his friends, he is prone to obsessions, but gets dissatisfied and drops them fairly quickly.

Ratty

Actually a water vole, he is astute, charming and affable.
